I am delighted that you have chosen to pursue your postgraduate studies at the University of Lincoln.

Studying at postgraduate level can help you to further your career, advance your skills and knowledge or prepare you to start your own business or to change career direction.

Whatever your aspiration, Lincoln aims to give you the strongest possible foundation to help you achieve your aspirations.

This guide provides you with information on the services and facilities on offer at Lincoln - everything from accommodation to the Students’ Union and careers support.

I hope you find the information useful and I wish you every success with your studies.

Professor Mary Stuart
Vice Chancellor
University of Lincoln
To ensure that enrolment and your first days at university go as smoothly as possible, there are some steps you can take before your arrive.

Before You Start Your Studies
• Log on to Blackboard to check, update and submit your personal details
• Upload your photograph to the ‘Getting Started’ section of Blackboard.
The deadline for this is 10 September 2015. You will formally enrol once you arrive on campus.

Pre-enrolment
You need to bring the following items with you to enrolment:
• Enrolment ticket
• NHS registration form (should you wish to register with the Health Centre situated on campus).

Enrolment
Enrolment is the formal process through which you officially join the University. When you enrol you confirm your agreement to become a student at Lincoln, to abide by University regulations and to become liable for tuition fee payments.

Module Choices
If you need to choose the modules you will be studying from September, and have not already done so, you will need to contact your College/School Office to confirm your choices.

Settling In
Get to know your way around the campus and the city to locate the amenities you’ll need, such as supermarkets, pharmacies and leisure facilities.

Visit the Library and log on to your account. Various induction and information sessions are available to help you make the most of this important resource during your studies.

Check in with the Students’ Union which runs a series of Welcome Week events, such as the Fresher’s Fayre and the Sports and Societies Fayre.

Don’t forget: if you have any questions or concerns, we are here to help. Just ask a member of staff.

Funding

You will need to have funding in place for your studies before you arrive. The following pages provide important information on fees and funding.

Tuition Fees
Postgraduate fees vary depending on the course and mode of study. Fees can be found on individual programme information pages on our website or in our postgraduate prospectus. Please visit www.lincoln.ac.uk/postgraduate for further details.

Payment Options
There are a number of ways you can pay:

- Online Payment
  To pay your fees online using a credit or debit card, please visit https://pay.lincoln.ac.uk.

- Cheque Payment
  Return a cheque with your enrolment form (write your student ID number, name and address on the reverse), made payable to University of Lincoln*.

  *Cheque must clear before enrolment or, if paying a balance, before graduation.

- Bank Transfer
  A transfer in sterling can be made directly into the University’s bank account by quoting the following information:

  Account Name: University of Lincoln
  Sort Code: 30-95-05
  Account Number: 02770857
  Reference: Student ID and full name of student.

  Additional details for bank transfers from overseas:
  IBAN: GB89LOYD 30950502770857
  Swift code or BIC: LOYDGB2I92

- Instalment Options
  Instalment plans can be set up online by visiting https://pay.lincoln.ac.uk. Instalments are due on the 15th of each month for a term of between two and nine months. Payments commence in September 2015 or the month following your enrolment, whichever is later.

  International Instalment Options
  If your fees status is classed as ‘Overseas’ you will be asked to pay a deposit of £2,000 upon acceptance of your offer. At enrolment you will be required to pay 50% of the tuition fee due (less any deposit or further tuition fee monies already paid). You will not be able to enrol unless this amount is paid on or before enrolment. The remaining 50% balance can be paid across a maximum of nine monthly instalments, commencing September 2015.

Sponsorship
Bring written evidence of your sponsorship to enrolment on letterheaded paper. This should be signed by your manager/director and needs to include your name, academic year you are being sponsored for, the programme title and the amount. The letter needs to be addressed to the University of Lincoln and your sponsor must be a commercial body, not an individual.

Sponsors cannot pay in instalments and where your sponsor’s payment is outstanding for more than 30 days, the University shall have direct recourse to you and you will be automatically liable for any outstanding sum.

Financial Support
Completing a postgraduate qualification is an investment in your future, but we understand that funding your studies can be a worry. While there is no formal funding structure for postgraduate study, there are a range of potential resources.

- Employer sponsorship
  Postgraduate sponsorship makes for well qualified, enthusiastic and committed employees and, as a result, an increasing number of employers are willing to fund or contribute to the costs of a postgraduate qualification.

- Scholarships
  The University offers a wide range of scholarships to University of Lincoln alumni, high achievers and international students. For full details on our scholarships, please visit www.lincoln.ac.uk/pgscholarships.

Bank Loan Schemes
Professional and Career Development Loans can be used to help pay for work-related learning. Loans are typically offered at a reduced interest rate and the government pays the interest while you're studying. For further information please visit www.gov.uk/career-development-loans.

Research councils and public bodies
There are six Research Councils offering awards for taught and research courses at Master’s level and above. Amounts awarded vary, but all awards for UK students include tuition fees plus a contribution towards living costs, fieldwork and academic materials.

Research Council funding for postgraduate research training goes directly to research organisations who then undertake the selection and recruitment of students.

A Home from Home

Whether you are living on or off campus, making sure you choose the right accommodation, in the right location, is an important part of ensuring that Lincoln feels like home right from the start.

On-campus Accommodation

Postgraduate students are welcome to apply for on-campus accommodation once they have accepted their offer of a place. You can find information regarding accommodation and apply online at www.lincoln.ac.uk/accommodation

Saul House is located just 100 metres from campus and caters exclusively for postgraduate and international students. Accommodation comprises of en-suite rooms in three-bedroom apartments.

Off-campus Accommodation

Residential Partnership Halls are located adjacent to the University and are within five minutes’ walk of the campus. They have been developed in association with the University’s Residential Services Team in line with the City of Lincoln Accreditation Scheme.

Associate Halls are located off-campus but are within five to fifteen minutes’ walk from the University and city centre.

Life on Campus

Parking

Students are discouraged from bringing cars as Lincoln’s central location allows for easy access via public transport.

The campus is situated in the city centre with shops, bars, restaurants and other leisure facilities only minutes away. There is no parking available on the Brayford Pool Campus.

Security and Safety

Lincoln is one of the safest university cities to live in the UK and has been awarded Purple Flag status. The University has security staff and CCTV cameras operating across the campus 24 hours a day to ensure your safety. For further advice on staying safe and secure visit www.lincs.police.uk

Further Information

Wherever you choose to live, the University’s Residential Services Team can provide answers to your queries or guidance on a range of accommodation-related issues.

If you are a postgraduate researcher, you will join the University of Lincoln’s Graduate School, where you can benefit from a rich cross-disciplinary environment with access to dedicated support and training.

The Graduate School aims to support the overarching needs of our postgraduate researchers, specifically around opportunities to engage in interdisciplinary debate, non-discipline specific training and developmental activities within and beyond the University.

The Graduate School can help to prepare you to undertake research and covers a wide range of areas including postgraduate research training, presentation skills development, data management planning, public skills workshops, bid writing training and interview skills training.

In addition, you can join one of our interdisciplinary research groups in a related field of expertise and take part in forums for discussion and debate.

Dedicated Support

The Graduate School supports the training needs of our postgraduate researchers and encourages you to get involved with a range of events, activities and groups to make the most of your time at Lincoln, while developing skills, knowledge and experience in preparation for your academic and professional career.

We provide a forum for interdisciplinary debate and discussion through our research groups, while promoting e-publishing and national and international collaboration with other postgraduate research communities.

Our PhD Peer Assisted Learning (PALs) programme produces a weekly e-newsletter and blog and supports you to publish work in renowned journals and to attend global conferences.

At the Heart of Research

The student voice is at the heart of the Graduate School. Our research students have the opportunity to help develop the content of our training and events and to shape the services we offer.

A structured programme of training will support you to develop the advanced analytical, critical thinking and problem-solving skills you require for your research and your future career. You will automatically be enrolled into the Graduate School when you start your postgraduate research degree.

“Lincoln is a friendly institution, and the best thing is probably the Graduate School. They have been amazing. They arrange workshops to help us develop and put on different professional and social events such as quizzes and film nights. The Peers Assisted Learning (PALs) they arrange is fantastic and is a great, organised support network.”

Janine Just, PhD Psychology
Advice, Support and Services

Throughout your time at the University of Lincoln, our support staff will be available if you need any help or advice.

The Student Services Team provides integrated support to students through two teams of expert staff who are here to help you make the most of your studies.

Student Support Centre

The Student Support Centre, located in the University’s Minerva Building, is a one-stop-shop for students to gain access to all of our services.

What services do we offer?

The following specialist teams are based within the Student Support Centre:

The Advice Service/International Advice
Our team can advise you of your rights and responsibilities across a wide range of subjects, such as:

International Student Group
Joining the International Student Group (ISG) through the Students’ Union is a fantastic way to meet other students outside of your course, learn about different cultures and have fun. The ISG organises social events and activities throughout the year, including international film nights, bowling, football matches and the most popular event of the year – Christmas dinner. You can also learn new languages by participating in lessons run by fellow students.

Health Centre
There is a Health Centre situated on the Brayford Pool Campus in the Marina Building. The Centre is a NHS General Medical Practice and offers medical services to students.

An experienced team of doctors and nurses can help when you have a specific medical problem as well as giving more general health and lifestyle advice.

You can register at the Health Centre on enrolment day, or at any time during your studies. During the holidays you will still be able to see your doctor back home as a temporary patient.

Alternatively, there are other GP practices in Lincoln you can register with. Please contact the Student Support Team for further information.

Opening Times
Monday to Friday: 8am to 6.30pm with appointments between 9am and 5pm.

Careers Support

A postgraduate qualification from the University of Lincoln can open doors. It can make all the difference to your prospects in an increasingly competitive jobs market.

Face-to-face Support
The University’s Careers & Employability Team offers qualified advisers who can work with you to provide tailored, individual support and career advice during your time at the University and once you graduate. This service includes one-to-one coaching, CV advice and interview preparation to help you maximise your future opportunities. Having achieved new knowledge and skills, you will be fully supported to fulfil your career ambitions. The service works closely with local, national and international employers, acting as a gateway to the business world. It advertises a range of graduate positions around the country and internationally.

Business Start-up
The University’s award-winning business incubation centre is on hand to support graduates interested in turning their ideas into their own business. The Centre provides office accommodation, support and links to other agencies and professional services to help your business develop and succeed.

Developing Enterprising Ideas
As a postgraduate student, you may be involved in research that generates valuable Intellectual Property (IP). The University is committed to developing and protecting IP to benefit both the inventors and institution. You will have access to a range of services related to IP, including advice on IP and exploitation, and support if you want to set up a spin-out company.

The Lincoln Award
The Lincoln Award programme helps you acquire transferable skills, in addition to those learnt on your course, and to showcase your achievements to prospective employers. Find out more at www.lincolnsu.com/lincolnaward

Training and Support
Research students benefit from a structured programme of training designed to develop the advanced analytical, critical-thinking and problem-solving skills required both study and future careers. You will be supported to present and publish your work and attend relevant global conferences, while the Research Office will provide expert guidance in areas of funding and support. This includes help with the preparation and submission of applications to research councils, the European Commission, government bodies and UK charities.
Looking after your interests is central to the Students’ Union and we work closely with the University and local organisations to ensure you have the best postgraduate student experience at Lincoln.

The Union, voted best in the UK at the National Union of Students Awards 2014, provides support in academic and welfare issues, co-ordinates student-led activities like sports clubs and societies, and hosts social events.

There are a range of opportunities and activities available through the Students’ Union to further your university experience. These include:

- Welfare support on all issues connected with housing, health and student rights
- The Job Shop which offers a varied range of paid and unpaid, full-time and part-time employment and work experience opportunities

Academic Representation

As a postgraduate student at Lincoln, you have the opportunity to get your voice heard and enhance the student experience by becoming an Academic Representative for your School.

Academic Reps are elected students that communicate issues, concerns and development ideas on behalf of their School.

Reps receive support and training, and have the chance to network with students and colleagues in other Schools to identify and raise any common issues across the University.

Elections for the Academic Representation team take place in September. For further information about the scheme please contact reps@lincolnsu.com

NUS

Lincoln Students’ Union is an affiliated member of the National Union of Students (NUS). NUS is an alliance of more than 600 Students’ Unions, which aims to promote, defend and extend the rights of students and to develop and champion strong Students’ Unions. Applying for an NUS Extra Card will give you a range of exclusive student discounts locally and nationally. Visit the NUS site at www.nus.org.uk or see the team at the Students’ Union reception.

Sports and Recreation Centre

Located on campus, the University of Lincoln’s Sports and Recreation Centre boasts a large selection of modern, specialist facilities such as:

- Large fitness and free weights suite
- Sports Hall for badminton, basketball, netball and volleyball
- Exercise studio for a wide range of exercise classes
- Indoor cycling suite
- Boxercise suite
- Male and female saunas
- Squash courts
- Five-a-side and seven-a-side football pitches (synthetic & rubber crumb pitches)
- Hockey pitch
- Located away from the Brayford Pool Campus is a cricket pitch and grass pitches for football, rugby and lacrosse.

Fitness Suite

The Fitness Suite houses an excellent range of equipment including cardiovascular and resistance equipment and free weights. Also included in the fitness suite is an abdominal workout and stretching area. You can sign up to a personal programme, which includes one-to-one sessions with a fitness instructor, and choose from a wide variety of fitness classes.

Unlike other sports centres and gyms in the area, the University Sports Centre has no joining fee for students. There are four simple and flexible ways to pay for your gym membership: yearly, termly, monthly and pay-as-you-go.

Sports and Activities

Sport at Lincoln offers an amazing array of more than 40 different sports and activities to choose from.

Each sport or activity caters for all ability levels, so if you prefer a more relaxed approach to sport there are a range of informal social sports sessions, leagues and fun events to get involved with.

Students also have the opportunity to compete in the British Universities & Colleges Sport (BUCS) leagues and competitions in a wide range of sports including golf, rugby, football, badminton, basketball, hockey, netball, rowing, tennis and cricket.
