

Report to the Board of Governors Concerning Misconduct in Research at University of Lincoln

This report is provided to the Board of Governors in line with the UK Research Integrity Office (UK RIO) Procedure for the Investigation of Misconduct in Research and the University of Lincoln Procedure for the Investigation of Misconduct in Research (UKRIO).

This report covers the academic Year: 2017/18

Number of Research Misconduct Allegations: 1

Details of Allegation:	Current Status of Investigation	Outcome
Failure to properly recognise the material contribution of an academic in published research	Under investigation	n/a

Professor Tim Hodgson
Named Person

01/10/2018

Note: It is recommended that this report is made available to the public via the University Research Strategy and Policies web site.