Introduction

The University of Lincoln Bursary and Scholarship Schemes have been established to provide additional financial support, above that provided from Government, to encourage participation in Higher Education by students from disadvantaged backgrounds and to promote postgraduate study. For eligible students, payments from the schemes are non-repayable and, depending on the particular scheme, take the form of either a direct payment to the student or credit against student tuition fee accounts.

Objectives:

- To support the University of Lincoln Access and Participation Plan 2020/21-2024/25, approved by the Office for Students (OfS). (University of Lincoln Scholarship).
- To encourage progression of University of Lincoln students from Undergraduate to Postgraduate study. (University of Lincoln Alumni Scholarships)
- To encourage and promote Sporting excellence within the University. (University of Lincoln Sports Bursary)
- To encourage care experienced students to enrol and study at the University. (University of Lincoln Blackburn Bursary)
- To recognise and reward students with the best entry tariff points achieved in one sitting and enrolling in 2021. (Excellence Scholarship).
- To recognise and reward exceptional academic talent and contribution to community, students enrolling in 2021. (The Vice Chancellor's Scholarship)

General Terms and Conditions applying to all Bursaries and Scholarships

1. Eligibility

- 1.1. Bursaries and Scholarships will only be paid to students whose enrolment for the relevant academic year has been formally recorded on the University Student Information System.
 - 1.2. Students repeating a year or part of a year will not be eligible for any Bursary or Scholarship payment during that academic year.
 - 1.3. The University reserves the right to seek repayment of any Bursary or Scholarship payment made in error and/or in excess of the eligible amount. This includes where students have withdrawn from a programme and therefore became ineligible for any Bursary or Scholarship from their last date of attendance.
 - 1.4. Bursaries and Scholarships (or, where applicable, part there-of) will only be paid to students who are enrolled on the University's Student Information System at each applicable eligibility checkpoint in the academic year.
 - 1.5. The University of Lincoln Bursaries & Scholarships are not valid in conjunction with each other, with the exception of Excellence Scholarship, VC's Scholarship, Blackburn Bursary, Sports Bursary and Siemens Engineering Bursaries.
 - 1.6. Eligibility of EU students for all of the scholarships listed below will only be considered where the student first enrolled onto their programme of study prior to 1 August 2021. EU students who enrol after this date may be eligible for an international scholarship.
2. Debt
 - 2.1. Bursaries and Scholarships will only be applicable to students who have paid for their tuition fees for the relevant academic year in full (including through a Student Loan from Student Finance England), or have made satisfactory payment arrangements with the University's Finance Department.
 - 2.2. Bursaries and Scholarships will not be applicable where a student has breached the terms of his/her tuition fee payment agreement or where a student has an outstanding academic fee debt to the University.
3. Bank Accounts
 - 3.1. Where Bursary or Scholarship eligibility involves payment to the student, monies will be paid directly into a nominated bank account, as advised by the student.
 - 3.2. Students are responsible for maintaining up to date bank details with both the University and the Student Loans Company (SLC).
 - 3.3. Bursaries and Scholarships may be paid into nominated bank accounts in instalments.
 - 3.4. Where bank details have not been received/are inaccurate, and the University has taken reasonable steps to retrieve updated information from the relevant student, the University reserves the right to rescind that student's eligibility to a bursary and/or scholarship award for the relevant academic year.
4. Higher Education Bursaries and Scholarships System (HEBSS)
 - 4.1. Where a Bursary payment is administered by the Student Loans Company (SLC) on behalf of the University, payment will not be made to those students who have opted not to give their consent, via the student finance application, for the SLC to share information with the University.

- 4.2. The University is not responsible for the delayed payment of a Bursary where the incorrect tuition fee has been quoted on the funding application form or where evidence provided by the student in respect of their financial support application has not been verified by the SLC.

5. Timescales/Deadlines

- 5.1. The cut-off date for unpaid/unclaimed Bursaries and Scholarships will be 30th September 2022. After this date, save for the case of exceptional circumstances,* student eligibility for a Bursary and/or Scholarship for the academic year 2021/22 will be rescinded.

6. Disclaimers

- 6.1. Information regarding the University's Bursaries and Scholarships published outside of this document, both internally and externally, is intended as informative only and does not necessarily represent the position of the University.
- 6.2. This document should be referred to by staff and students as the definitive source of information in respect of University of Lincoln Home student Bursary and Scholarship provision.

*Exceptional circumstance claims must be made in writing by the student to the Head of Student Administration, explaining the circumstance which has led to the student failing to carry out the required action that has prevented the University/SLC from calculating and/or paying the Bursary/Scholarship.
