

UNIVERSITY OF LINCOLN

1 June 2021

Welcome to the University of Lincoln!

As the Dean of Postgraduate Education for the University of Lincoln, I would like to extend to you a very warm welcome. We are excited about having you with us at the University of Lincoln and seeing you embark upon your Postgraduate journey with us!

During our social and welcome week period, week beginning 4th October 2021, there is a wide range of activities available which will give you the opportunity to find out more about the services provided by the University, as well as exploring the city if this is your first time in Lincoln. I would also encourage you to take full advantage of the Students' Union during your time at the University of Lincoln, especially during induction activities that have been planned for you.

It is important to us that as Postgraduate students you not only become fully engaged in your course for which teaching will commence week beginning 11th October 2021, but that you become part of the wider University Postgraduate community. Postgraduate study is a hugely important step, where the fundamentals of your Undergraduate education are further developed. You may be extending the knowledge and skills from your first degree, or you may be changing discipline. Either way, your period of study should be an enormously enriching one and I would encourage you to take full advantage of your time here. We have a designated Postgraduate common room and study space, which is a great place to work and meet new colleagues as well as a number of online communities.

At the University of Lincoln, we place student representation and voice at the heart of everything we do. Early on in your course, there will be an opportunity to elect a PG student representative. I would encourage everyone to consider putting themselves forward and contributing to the University's Postgraduate community.

I look forward to meeting many of you during the course of your studies with us and wish you every success in your studies. If you wish to be in touch with the University of Lincoln before welcome week, please do not hesitate to contact us on pgenquiries@lincoln.ac.uk

My congratulations again on securing your place at the University of Lincoln!

Best wishes,
